

International Institute of Agriculture

Updates

September 2020

Fran Adams

Added 2 post cards from auction archives previously not seen.

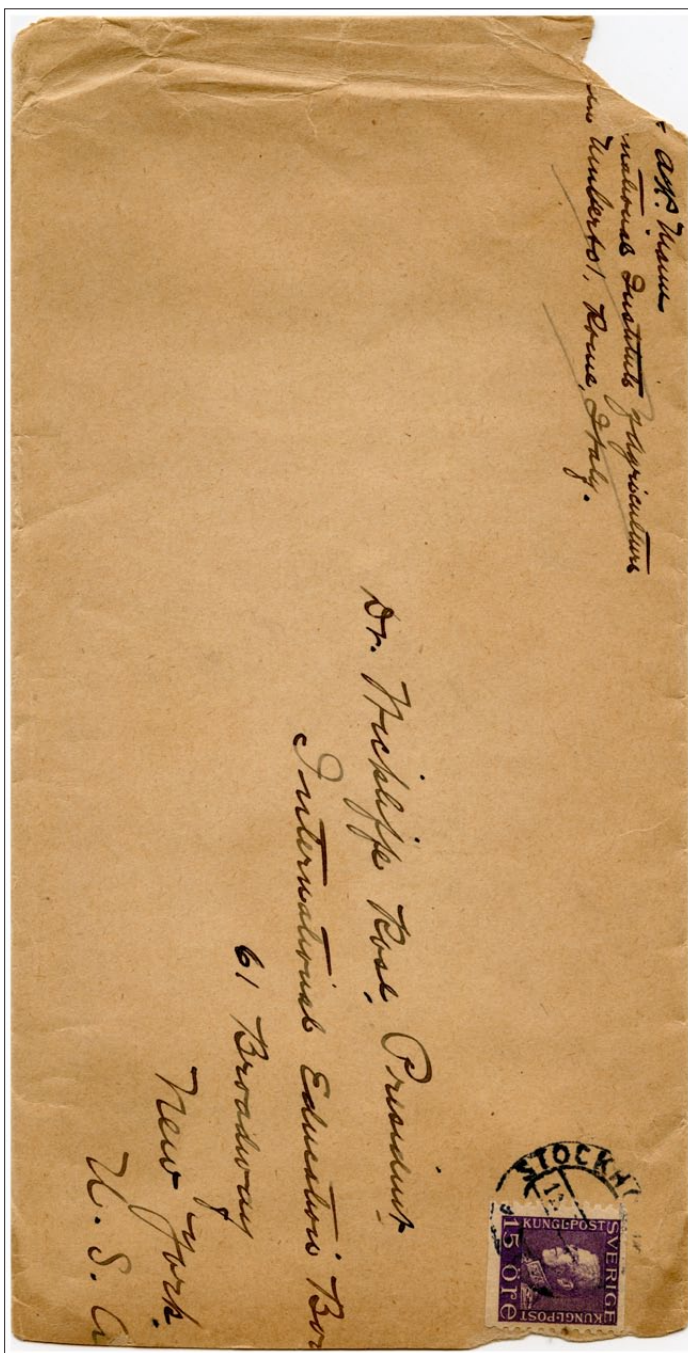

Text at bottom in margin

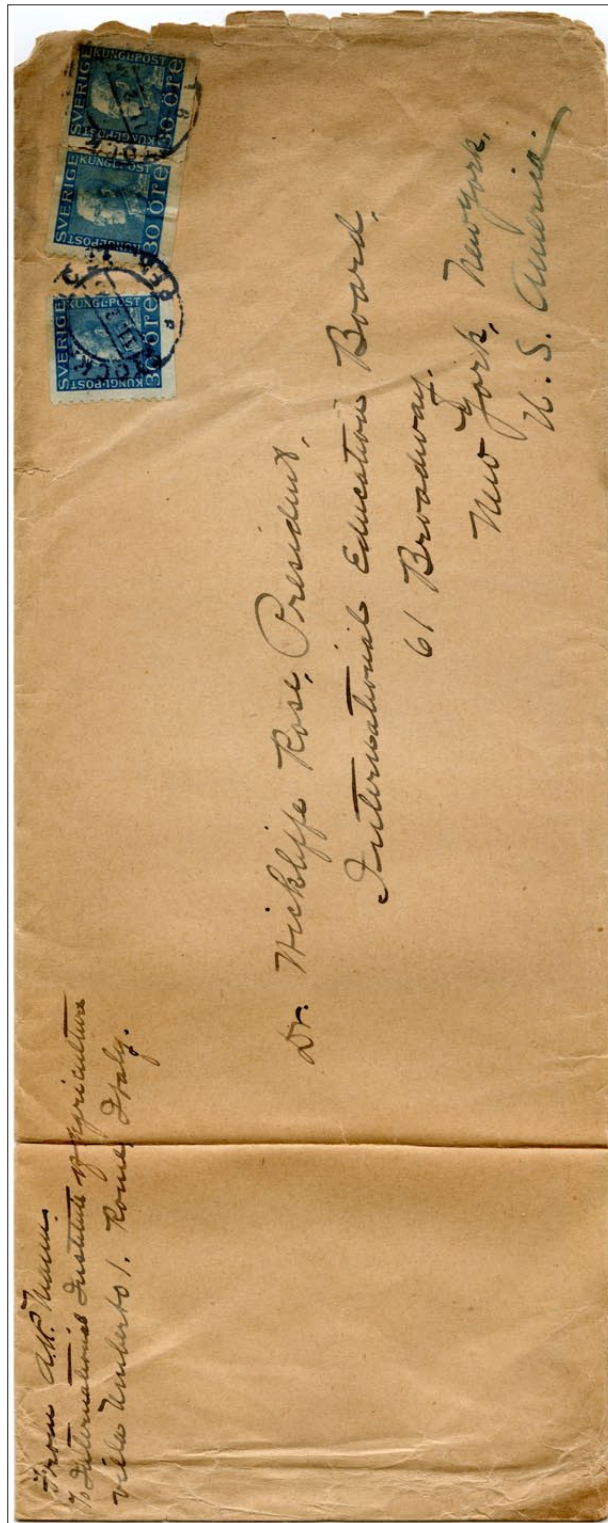

No text on front of card

Mail from Sweden with manuscript return address of Villa Umberto
1. Possibly from an employee of the IIA visiting Sweden.

Stockholm, Sweden to New York, New York, USA, 12 February 1925
15 Ore single weight surface letter

Stockholm, Sweden to New York, New York, USA, 11 February 1925
90 Ore Sextuple weight surface letter, oversized envelope

About the Author

---

Fran Adams is a life-long stamp collector and a philatelic exhibitor with interests ranging from prehistoric life, native peoples, mythology and Steampunk (Victorian Age steam-powered science fiction-fantasy), to the history of international organizations for peace and the betterment of mankind. Marrying those interests using computer technology, virtual worlds, worldwide web applications and self-publishing, produces interesting results.

Comments to improve this guide are welcome.

Please send e-mail to the author at:

fran.adams @ gmail.com.

Philatelic literature by Fran Adams

Available on Amazon Books (<http://www.amazon.com>)

The Hague Peace Conference of 1899

Postcards of the Conference

ISBN: 978-1724683540

The Leticia Incident

Commission for the Administration of the Territory of Leticia 1933-1934

ISBN: 978-1076199904

O.C. Marsh, Chief Red Cloud and the Thunder Horses

ISBN: 979-8636364931

United Nations Memorial Service

Muir Woods, 19 May 1945

ISBN: 9798682557776