

12. Epilogue - The Institute Today

Continued Exploration and the Public

Jacques Cousteau became leader of the Institute in 1957. He continued the Institute's legacy of ocean exploration and as an important member of the international research community.

Research station for living and working under the sea

Research ship Calypso

Jacques Cousteau
Semi-postal issue
in two currencies
Francs and Euros

Monte Carlo, Monaco
to Schönbüchel, Austria
5 September 1960 (European surface letter rate 50 centimes)

Machine slogan device for the 50th Anniversary

Prince Albert I Statue
outside the Museum

The Museum celebrated its 50th anniversary in 1960 with a pictorial machine slogan cancellation device (above). In 2015, the Monaco Museum celebrated its 50,000,000th (yes, that's millionth) visitor.

50,000,000+ Visitors

